Our Mission:

Called to be shepherds, doing God's work, daily.

The Future of the Church

“Get the word out. Teach all these things. And don’t let anyone put you down because you’re young. Teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity.” 1 Timothy 4:11-12 (The Message)

One of my very favorite ministries in the church today is Bible camp. I was never a camp counselor, but I really wanted to be. It didn’t work out for me, but when college was over I took a job as the Director of Youth Ministries at a church and my very first week on the job they sent me with a van full of kids to Bible camp. I got to hang out with the Bible camp staff, build relationships with the kids from my church, sing songs around the evening campfire, and even help with worship. It was like being an honorary camp counselor for a week. I looked forward to those weeks in the summer at Bible camp every year.

As a pastor I still have weeks where I get to be a part of Bible camp ministries. In June staff from Park River Bible Camp and Red Willow Bible Camp came to Jamestown to lead Vacation Bible School for elementary age kids from Atonement, St. John’s, and Trinity. Kids gathered in worship, singing at the top of their lungs about the love of God. Young men and women taught stories from the Bible about the love of God to our kids.

Then in the beginning of July, I took High Schoolers to Park River Bible Camp. These were some of the youth who were supposed to attend the ELCA Youth Gathering this summer. That event was canceled and PRBC stepped up and planned a local event to fill the void. For a week they gathered to hear about the boundless love of God. They gathered in worship. They sang around the campfire. They played and prayed and created art. All week they heard that they are loved by a God whose love has no limits.

The young men and women who give their summers to Bible camp ministries love their kids with everything they have. They answer a call to love as Christ loved. They pour all their energy into their campers and it is breathtaking to behold. By the end of a week at camp or VBS the kids who receive this outpouring of love are changed. Many will return to be leaders one day, still talking about the counselor who helped them believe God loved them.

This is Holy Ground. Here we find the young people of the church gathered to build faith together. Bible camp ministries are where you see the images of the future of the church. It’s joyful and exuberant and honest and LOUD. It gives me hope and I know the future of the church is in good hands. Please hold these ministries in prayer and support them in every way you can. Encourage the kids in your lives to be campers or counselors. This ministry is essential to the church!

Blessings, Pastor Susan Haukaas

Discernment Process Update

Each of the eight ELCA congregation councils discussed the Goals for Building Ministry Teams in our areas. Information in newsletters or in person has shared these goals with the congregations.

By July 15 seven of the original eight congregations decided to participate in this first set of goals. Participating congregations and local coordinators are as follows:

Atonement, Jamestown	LeAnn Fuchs
Christ the King, Ellendale	Dianne Billey
Emmanuel, Gackle	Warren Zenker
English, Medina	Bryan Behm
St. John's, Jamestown	Char Freeberg
Trinity, Jamestown	Joni Zink
Zion, Kulm	Dylan Schnabel

Pastor Kristi Weber will serve as the pastoral coordinator on this team.

The local coordinators are responsible for beginning implementation steps toward the common goals.

Three of their early tasks will be

- 1) to choose a name for this ministry partnership
- 2) to revise the way the goals will be implemented in light of having 7 participating congregations instead of 8 (see below for more detail), and
- 3) to prepare a budget for the first 6 months, and a 2023 calendar year budget proposal in time for review at October congregation council meetings and January 2023 congregation annual meetings

Other groups that are beginning their work are the call committees (for two pastors) and search team (for a Director of Youth and Family Ministries). Pastor Erik Weber is taking the lead in coordinating the call processes. English and St. John's will each select 3 members to serve on a joint call committee. An organizational meeting was scheduled for late July.

What is happening with Immanuel in Jamestown? Although Immanuel in Jamestown is interested in participating in some of the events (such as the Season of Creation worship series in September, and the Castaway Youth event on September 23-25) they are not ready to say yes to all the goals and participation with the local coordinators at this time. They will be invited to events, but not be part of the coordination team.

Food Pantry at English Lutheran

The Food Pantry is up and running once again. It is open 24 hours a day and is in the northwest corner of the Fellowship Hall. There are 2 cupboards for dry goods and a freezer for frozen (no refrigerator). They are all marked accordingly.

Donations can be dropped off at the church anytime and they will be stocked in the cupboards. If you are donating frozen, please place them in the freezer right away.

All donations are greatly appreciated.

If you know of anyone in need of some assistance, let them know about the Food Pantry.

Thank You

Thank you to those of you that have been saving used stamps and used greeting cards. I have places that I send them to. They really appreciate getting them to use for their different projects.

Please continue to save them. You can leave them at the church.

Kathy

Greeting Cards

We have a nice assortment of greeting cards—both boxed and individual in the church fellowship hall.

FYI: Please do not take a card or two out of a box and put the box back on the rack. If you do not find a card on the display for your event and would like one out of a box, take the card out and leave the box set on the table so we know that the box is no longer complete.

Thank you, WELCA
