Miracles of Jesus

Jesus said, “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you.” [Mark 5:19]

Healings. Feeding thousands. Raising the dead. These miracles of Jesus stand out for being so out of the ordinary. They are memorable. For the people involved, they are life changing. For we who hear about them from the Bible, they are inspiring revelations of Jesus as God’s promised Messiah.

Our response to these miracles may be like the man from whom Jesus cast out demons. [Mark 5:1-20] The man’s life had been changed. He wanted to follow Jesus on his travels. But Jesus had a different message for this man. “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you and what mercy he has shown you.” [Mark 5:19]

Jesus tells the man that a faithful way for him to follow Jesus is to stay in his community. The way this healed man can make an impact in his own community is to tell his friends and neighbors what the Lord has done for him. Telling of God’s mercy to the people who knew him before he was healed is a message that will carry a lot of weight because of the relationships between this man and his friends and neighbors. They knew him before he was healed. They can see him healed now. The man can give the glory for this healing to God.

Admittedly, the experience is more complicated in the Bible. Read Mark 5:15-17 for more about the reaction of the people in the community. But by verse 20, the healed man has told people about how much Jesus had done for him and everyone was amazed.

Early in the Gospel of Mark, we hear that Jesus came saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near.” Mark 1:15 These miracles are revelations of God’s reign (kingdom) here in the presence of the people. Healings. Feeding thousands. Raising the dead. Changed lives. Jesus is God living among us.

During the season of Lent, you are invited to explore some of the miracles of Jesus through art. On Thursdays, a video series by ELCA Pastor Paul Oman, will share artwork drawn by Pastor Oman as one of Jesus’ miracles is told. The connection between the artwork and the miracles will invite you to see and hear these miracles in new ways.

The Bible study will invite you into conversation and reflection about how the artwork helps you to experience Jesus living among us in a way that draws you closer to God. You have two options for participation: Thursdays at 10:00 am in person at English or Thursdays at 6:30 pm on ZOOM. The dates will be March 10, 17, 24, 31 and April 7.

May this Lenten season be a time when you are drawn to the Word in Jesus Christ.

In Peace, Pastor Kristi Weber

Discernment Process among South Central North Dakota ELCA Congregations

Overview

The next two months will focus on communication and developing options for the eight congregations.

Half the planning team members are on the Presentation and Listening Team. They will travel in groups to visit each congregation. Their purpose is to share what was heard during the January/February listening sessions. They will also continue to listen to how each congregation responds to the topics and concerns raised by other congregations.

The other half of the planning team members are on the Options Team. They will use the information shared in the listening sessions to develop a set of options that will be presented to the congregations. After additional feedback, they will refine the options.

Timeline

Jan 16-Feb 10—Video presentation and initial listening sessions with each congregation

February 16—March 13— Presentation and Listening Team visits each congregation

March 16—April 12—First set of Options presented to each congregation for feedback

Next Steps

When dates are announced for visits from the Presentation and Listening Team, please plan to participate. Expect monthly opportunities during the next three months.

A sampling of ideas that have been shared in past Discussion

- Interest in sharing a youth director
- Interest in sharing musical leadership/joint choir or praise band
- Preaching rotation with consistency
- Connect ministry with the needs of the community
- Listen and build relationships
- Communication is most important
- Willingness to try something, see how it works, get feedback and adapt

(con't from page 5—Discernment Process)
